

Safari Day Camp 2010

Thank you for your interest in Safari Day Camp. Lion Country Safari's unique summer day camp program offers children ages 6-13 a wonderful way to learn about animals and conservation in behind-the-scenes activities that are educational and fun. There are also plenty of non-animal activities including swimming, paddle boating, miniature golf, group games, scavenger hunts, rides, water play area, and arts and crafts.

Sessions run for one week each, from June 14-August 13, 2010, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Parents must drop off campers between 9:15 and 9:30 a.m. and pick up between 4:15 and 4:30 p.m. (unless registered for extended care, which is available from 8:00 - 9:30 a.m. and/or 4:30 - 5:30 p.m. at a cost of $10 extra per child per day). Parents must sign their children in and out daily.

What to Bring

Each child will be given a Safari Day Camp T-shirt, cap, and water bottle on the first day of camp. For safety and health reasons, the camp T-shirt and a water bottle (camp water bottle not required) are required daily. The cap is optional. Water only in bottles, please! Some campers are allergic to bees, which are attracted to sweet drinks.

Swim time (with certified lifeguards) will be offered daily, so each camper should bring swimsuit, towel and (if needed) sunscreen & goggles. Campers may also want to bring insect repellent. A rain poncho is also recommended, since summer is the rainy season in Florida. Campers must apply sunscreen, insect repellent, etc. themselves.

Sneakers or other closed-toed shoes suitable for walking. No open-toed footwear is allowed.

Aquasocks (pool shoes) are recommended for walking from the changing area to the pool.

What NOT to bring

Money. Except for one day per week when campers are permitted to visit the gift shop (with a 20% discount). Everything else is covered by the tuition: lunches, snacks, crafts, games, rides, admission, T-shirt, water bottle, cap, photo.

Toys, games, stuffed animals, playing cards, etc. These items are a distraction, and we cannot guarantee that they will not be lost or stolen. No skate-shoes or skates!

Any dangerous items such as matches, weapons, etc. This goes without saying, but we've said it anyway.

Food. Unless the camper is on a special diet, all lunches and snacks are included in the tuition.

Friends – unless registered ahead! Space is limited and camp fills up early. Please note that there is room on the application to choose 1 friend.
