

Fill-In-The-Blank Scavenger Hunt

1. This type of primate is displayed on a set of islands in Safari World. They have a prehensile tail and can be observed from our nature walk or from the Safari Queen Boat ride.

_____ _____

2. What is the scientific name given to the largest continental species of tortoise in the world? It is also the third largest species of tortoise in the world, since the other two live on islands.

3. Which types of parrots are exhibited in a free-flight aviary in Safari World near the dinosaurs? These parrots are very friendly and possess a highly specialized tongue which is used to consume nectar; the end of their tongue resembles a paint brush.

_____ & _____ _____

4. Exhibited in Safari World is an animal that is listed as the slowest moving mammal on earth. He spends almost his entire life hanging upside down in the canopy of the rainforest. This animal is commonly referred to as the two-toed sloth. What is the scientific name for this animal?

_____ _____

5. This animal is considered to be the largest living reptile in North America. They can move about 11 mph on the land and up to 25 mph in the water. Their biting power is approximately 3,000 pounds per square inch.

_____ _____

6. Which reptile, exhibited in Safari World, is listed as the third largest species of snake in the world? This animal has a native range of Burma (Myanmar), India, Indochina, and China, but has become an invasive species in the Everglades.

Each answer will have one letter that appears in a box. Take each one of the boxed letters and place them on the six spaces below. These letters now make up a scrambled word. You will need to unscramble this word in order to get the answer to the final question. Good Luck!!

- - - - -

This parrot species with the scientific name of Melopsittacus undulates is the most popular pet bird in the world. You can find them in an interactive feeding area in Safari World.

- - - - -